Miracle

While miracle sleeps
And miracle dreams
It smiles in its sleep
And squirms under the stars

Who is worried
When miracle sneezes
Who goes nuts
When miracle wakes up

Who gets angry
When miracle is silent
Who hides and denies
Being a miracle

Who is in pain
For loving miracle
Who smiles
When miracle makes mistakes

Who wonders
When miracle drifts around
Fighting the wind
Until it burns out

Traces

I wake up
Only when I look at you
I melt
When I touch you

All doubts shall
Burn in hell tonight
Lights of the morning have faith in us

Faceless people mirroring each other
They feel beaten, they don't smile
Suddenly they cast a glance

Our fears are our chains
Your moan speaks louder than words
We are live human beings, but still superfluous

I look after you because...
I love you because...
I look after you because
I don't want to forget
How easily we disappear
Leaving no traces behind

We know
Winds laugh at us
When they fly
Above and beyond
And carelessly flip the pages of our lives

I look after you because....
I love you because....

It doesn't matter

I walk backwards
I stumble and walk around aimlessly

I carry the weight of the world on my shoulders and it wears me out
It feels like rope around my neck and looks like the stone bleeding

Tie me to the pillar of your shame– I agree
I don't mind sacrificing for your sins

You pulled out my tongue
My endless scream is silent for your deaf ears
You chopped off my legs
Because I don't march to the beat of your drum

Fear grabs and bites me
For no reason at all: my middle name is innocence

Some are willing to join your dirty game, others are not willing Nobody has a free choice

You took away from me
Even the things that didn't belong to me
Everybody will end up like me
Sooner or later

Play and Whirl

Yoo-hoo

Time doesn't seem to pass here

Wind seems to stand still

Is wind the same as the thought

Feels like my heart stopped beating

Yoo-hoo

You act like you don't notice me

You act like we all vanished into thin air

I am right beside you

Will you remember that?

Yoo-hoo

Beloved country

I wander around my beloved country
I am not concerned with everyday life
Loud noise subdues any sign of life
I see myself in rare glance at me

Should I dig the ground or wait
Should I die or remember
Questions bothering my tired feet walking on hot soil
How far I can reach using every bit of energy sucked out of my body

I can't bear
The subject matter
Shadows
Ran away
They didn't find anything remotely resembling cheer and joy

Music
Is banished
One less player
In your chest
Didn't find anything remotely resembling cheer and joy
One took away anything remotely resembling cheer and joy

Where is my beloved country
It played with the devil
Selfish souls devoured it
Its children reign now in the realm of darkness and horror

Should I dig the ground or wait
Should I die or remember
Questions bothering my tired feet walking on hot soil
How far I can reach using every bit of hope left over in my soul

Insomnia

I am weary and weak
But panic stricken
I fight and flee the sleep

I used to sleep once
It was before remembrance
I remember the dream

Mirrors reflecting strange images keep moving
Terror and agony
Patiently wait for me

I battle with mornings
My life is in clumsy hands

I used to sail
Once
But I drove my boat with steady hands

I used to sail
Once
In warm and friendly sea
Standing firm on my feet

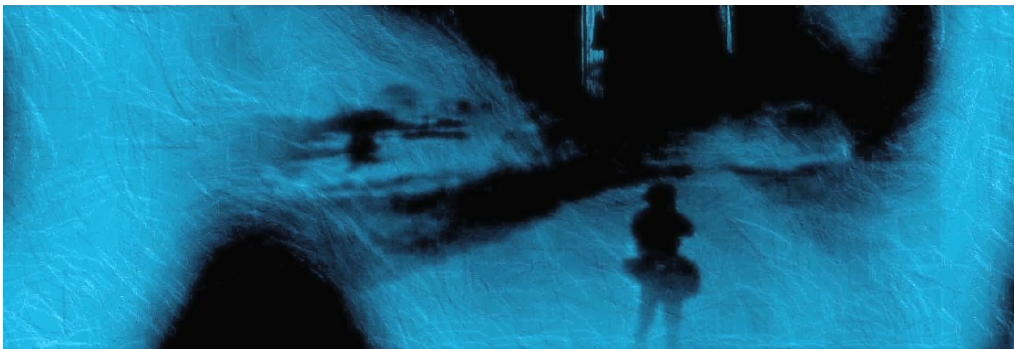

I sailed through the darkness of the world
I felt fragrance of the wind
In my lungs
I played with my life
Not fearing tomorrow

And I didn't worry about anything

All of a sudden
Before my tired eyes
Life shone in all its glory

Life dispersed its rays over the sky
Life kept calling and teasing me
Life dragged me and held me closer

I didn't stay where I used to be
And I didn't care

Time of the wind

Whispering voice
Is tickling my ear
It tells me a story
I can't hear

The story
Doesn't matter
Important thing is
Voice talking to me

I remember every word
I follow every movement
Not to forget

Every time I see you
It's a burst of hope for my heart
Every time I see you
My loneliness feels ashamed

These are not good times
For people I know
These are good times
For hyenas and predators
These times cry out for heroes
Good people like you and me

Not to forget

I hear your voice calling the wind
Take me with you
I hear your voice calling my name
Take me with you

Knights

Love is subversive act
Love scares people off
Brave knights in shining armour
Love without mercy

Love is subversive act
Kiss with passion

A man with the pale skin
And another one with thin skin
And yet another one wearing face with pain written all over it
And the last one who can do everything Except....

You are born into eternity
You can't hide, you can't flee
Brave knights in shining armour
Will get you

Love is the most subversive act
Imaginable
Brave knights in shining armour
Are writing this verse

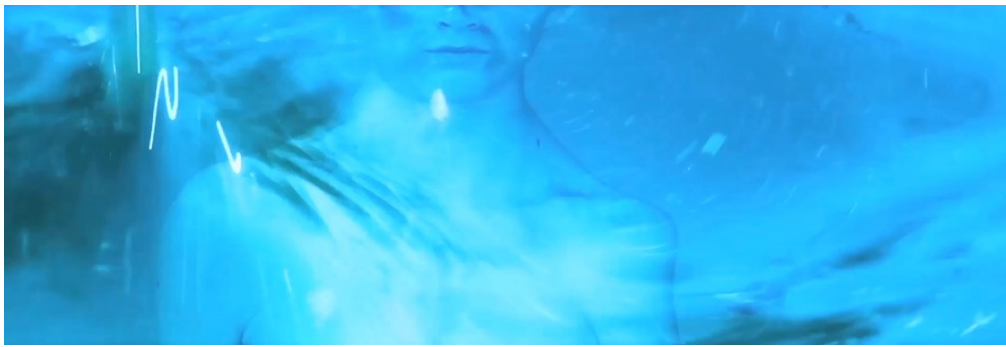

Supper

Ooh, I get butterfly feel from my stomach to my chest
Thousands of black butterflies fly inside my earthly shell
Every morning
On my path to face another day

Every minute crosses my tolerance threshold
Ooh, it's so difficult to stay alive until dinner time
Every minute crosses my tolerance threshold
Ooh, it's so difficult to drag myself home and still stand on my two feet

I shake with fever every step I make
My feet are so hot I can't bear; I am soaked in cold sweat
People looking at me, people having faith in me, people making demands on me
Their hopes and expectations are tiring
I am not a spineless person
To bow down to somebody – Sorry, not my style
That's why they break me

Every minute I feel like I am going to snap
Ooh, it's so difficult to stay alive until the dinner time
Every minute I feel like I am going to snap
It's just my heart keeping the pressure and tension under control
And saving me from complete mental and physical breakdown

Water

Conscience is guilty
For all missed opportunities
Light of the morning
Reveals all midnight deceptions

Miracles discover
All abandoned truths
I dig abyss
Because I don't listen to you

Loneliness and memories
Make me deaf

I avoid life fearing something or someone may touch me
I avoid any situation bringing people together or creating opportunities
I avoid everything that may bring joy to my life
I am avoiding you

It seems like you don't notice me
You talk as if
We all disappeared into thin air
Will you remember that

You wake me up, but you lose me
My agony doesn't go away
My fire is smoldering, my flame is burning with blaze
I believe I am alive

I feel safe when you touch me

Your eyes see where my mind is going to fail
Your arms know how to embrace my pain
Your strength in fervor will not reach the sky
Overpowering you
Overpowering us
